The Applicant(s) certifies that all statement herein is true and correct and by submitting this form in person, electronically or by fax, authorizes the owners, their representatives or duly authorized agents (the Landlord) to contact any references given herein. Should the Applicant(s) provide false information, the Landlord reserves the right to terminate the Tenancy with 30 days' notice. It is further understood that all information herein remains confidential and will not be released to anyone other than lawful authorities without prior consent of the Applicant(s) unless for the following: That all information collected may be used for the purpose of application approval, for the purpose of debt collection, to uphold and maintain the rules and regulations of the property and/or to evaluate tenancy. Applicant(s) understand that no representations, promises, or agreements as to occupancy, lease or date of possession have been made. The Landlord shall not be liable for any loss or damage occurring due to the inability to deliver possession of the premises applied for. If the Applicant(s) withdraw this application, or upon acceptance does not take occupancy of the premises, all sums deposited will be retained by the Landlord as liquidated damages and the applicant shall not acquire any right in, or to said premises for any reason.

Note: I, the Applicant, hereby consent by submitting this form in person, electronically or by fax, to the Landlord or it's duly authorized agent or representative, obtaining a credit information report on myself from a consumer reporting agency. I authorize the agencies and other persons to disclose information on me/us to the Landlord or its duly authorized agent or representative. The Landlord has the right to reject this application at its sole discretion.

Security and Pet Deposits

- At the start of tenancy, a Landlord can ask for a security deposit (and pet deposit if applicable). Each deposit can be no more than ½ month's rent
- If the tenant doesn't move into the rental unit, they are responsible for all obligations under the tenancy agreement. This includes paying rent or repairing damages
- A landlord may ask to keep a portion of security deposit for:
 - Damage the tenant, guests or pets caused to the rental unit beyond normal wear and tear
 - Unpaid bills or rent
 - Changing locks if keys/fobs are not returned
 - Costs incurred if the tenant moves out without giving proper notice
 - Any costs as outlined in the Residential Tenancy Act and Regulations

Renting Residential Property: What Tenants Need to Know

BC Financial Services Authority

is the legislated regulatory agency that works to ensure real estate professionals have the skills and knowledge to provide you with a high standard of service. All real estate professionals must follow rules that help protect consumers, like you. We're here to help you understand your rights as a real estate consumer.

Keep this information page for your reference.

Real estate professionals have a regulatory requirement to present you with this consumer information before providing services to you.

This information from BC Financial Services Authority explains the role of a real estate professional when you are considering renting a property.

The real estate professional who gave you this form represents the owner of this residential rental property.

While this real estate professional can provide some limited services to you as a prospective tenant of this rental property, they owe a duty of loyalty to the owner, and are working for the owner's best interests.

This form sets out what this real estate professional can and cannot do for you as a prospective tenant in relation to this rental property.

THEY CANNOT:

- ✗ give you advice on terms and conditions to include in a tenancy agreement
- ✗ negotiate on your behalf
- ✗ share any of the owner's confidential information with you

THEY CAN:

- ✓ share statistics and general information about the rental property market
- ✓ provide you with standard forms and contracts such as a rental application and/or tenancy agreement
- ✓ show the property
- ✓ assist you to fill out a tenancy agreement
- ✓ communicate your messages and present your offers to their client

Because this real estate professional is working in the owner's best interests, they have a duty to share important information with the owner if disclosed by you including, for example: your motivations, your financial qualifications, and your preferred terms and conditions.
